

THE 1918 "SPANISH FLU": ONLY THE VACCINATED DIED

THIS BLOG IS NOT AN ANTI-VACCINE COMMENTARY. I WISH TO ENCOURAGE READERS TO CAREFULLY READ THE DOCUMENTATION, DO THEIR DUE DILIGENCE, AND NOT BLINDLY ACCEPT WHAT WE ARE BEING TOLD.

WOULD YOU BE SURPRISED OR CONCERNED TO LEARN THAT THE 1918 "SPANISH FLU" HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH SPAIN AND MIGHT NOT HAVE BEEN A FLU AT ALL? WELL, HANG ON TIGHT, YOU ARE IN FOR A ROUGH RIDE!

WHAT HISTORY TELLS US ABOUT THE 1918 "SPANISH FLU"

History tells us that the 1918 Spanish Flu killed between 50 – 100 million people. At the time, medical and pharmaceutical sources described it as THE MOST horrific disease process since the Black Plague of 1347, which killed an estimated 25-30 million people.

VACCINATION: “THE ELEPHANT IN THE ROOM”

In the book, Vaccination Condemned, by Eleanor McBean, PhD, N.D., the author describes, in detail, personal and family experiences during the 1918 “Spanish Flu” pandemic.

McBean’s coverage of the 1918 “Spanish Flu”, as a reporter and an unvaccinated survivor, requires that the historical basis of the event needs to be revisited, not as a “conspiracy theory” but with evidence that will “set your hair on fire”.

A few years ago, I came across another book by Eleanor McBean: “Vaccination...The Silent Killer”. McBean provides evidence that not only were the historical events of the 1918 “Spanish Flu” compromised, but also those of the Polio and Swine Flu epidemics.

LET’S TALK “SPANISH FLU” FACTS:

THE SPANISH SCAPEGOAT

Spain was neutral during WW1 and did NOT censor its press, unlike the combatting countries. As a result, Spain was the first to report the 1918 Flu epidemic and the world "scapegoated" Spain as the source. Thus, the "Spanish Flu" is born.

THE FIRST CASE: MILITARY VACCINATION EXPERIMENTS IN FORT RILEY, KANSAS

In preparation for WW1, a massive military vaccination experiment involving numerous prior developed vaccines took place in Fort Riley, Kansas- where the first “Spanish Flu” case was reported.

WW1 DRAFT = HUMAN TEST SUBJECTS

The fledgling pharmaceutical industry, sponsored by the 'Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research', had something they never had before – a large supply of human test subjects. Supplied by the U.S. military's first draft, the test pool of subjects ballooned to over 6 million men.

BACTERIAL MENINGITIS VACCINE: THE KILLING FIELD

Autopsies after the war proved that the 1918 flu was NOT a “FLU” at all. It was caused by random dosages of an experimental ‘bacterial meningitis vaccine’, which to this day, mimics flu-like symptoms. The massive, multiple assaults with additional vaccines on the unprepared immune systems of soldiers and civilians created a “killing field”. Those that were not vaccinated were not affected.

SO... HOW DID CIVILIANS DIE?

1. WW1 ended sooner than expected, leaving HUGE quantities of unused experimental vaccines.
2. Fearing that soldiers coming home would spread diseases to their families, The U.S. government pushed the largest vaccine 'fear' campaign in history. They used the human population as a research and development lab to field test experimental vaccines.
3. Tens of millions of civilians died in the same manner as did the soldiers.
4. Instead of stopping the vaccines, doctors intensified them, calling it the great "Spanish Flu of 1918". As a result, ONLY THE VACCINATED DIED.

"Seven men dropped dead in a doctor's office after being vaccinated. Letters were sent to their families that they had been killed in action."

Eleanor McBean

Minnesota Wellness Directory

http://www.mnwelldir.org/docs/vaccines/vaccinations_condemned_McBean.htm

WW1 U.S. soldiers were given 14 – 25 untested, experimental vaccines within days of each other, which triggered intensified cases of ALL the diseases at once. The doctors called it a new disease and proceeded to suppress the symptoms with additional drugs or vaccines.

DECEPTION AND SECRECY HAVE A LONG HISTORY

In the examples given in my previous blog "COVID 19: Another Chapter in the History of Deception and Secrecy", history is replete with intentional lies told to the public to either "save face" or to deceive for nefarious purposes. The 1918 "Spanish Flu" was no exception.

BACK TO COVID-19: THE FERGUSON MODELS ARE FALSE AND MISLEADING

British scientist and Professor Neil Ferguson of The Imperial College, London (the same Imperial College of London funded by the Bill Gates Foundation) was responsible for developing the mathematical pandemic computer models for the COVID-19 pandemic.

The world followed Ferguson's advice, yet all his models have been proven to be grossly over stated and misleading.

For example, Ferguson modeled that Sweden would experience 100,000 deaths by June, 2020. To date, Sweden peaked at 2,854 deaths total.

These mathematical computer models are the basis for vaccine production.....hmmmm!*

THE MEDIA SILENCES NON-CONFORMIST VIEWPOINTS

The media, Facebook, Google, YouTube, and other “privately” owned communications outlets have become the self-proclaimed “guardians” (censors) of information.

On April 26, 2020, Twitter suspended the account of a publicly traded biotech company for sharing information about a non-medicinal UV light therapy for COVID-19. YouTube also removed a video demonstrating how the technology works.

“(YouTube) will ban videos that contradict W.H.O. guidance on the pandemic or share fake or unproven Coronavirus remedies.”

Susan Wojcicki

https://www.reddit.com/r/autotldr/comments/g6n74n/youtube_ceo_susan_wojcicki_announced_that_the/

NewsGuard recently classified Mercola.com as fake news for reporting that the COVID virus potentially leaked from the biosafety level 4 laboratory in Wuhan City, China.

THE PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRY OWNS AND CONTROLS THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

“Fact Checking” is often provided by paid writers from the pharmaceutical companies and not from verified, independent sources.

“The medical profession is being bought by the pharmaceutical industry, not only in terms of the practice of medicine, but also in terms of teaching and research. The academic institutions of this country are allowing themselves to be the paid agents of the pharmaceutical industry. I think it’s disgraceful.”

Vaccine promoters claim that vaccines wiped out most infectious diseases. History tells us a different story. The beginning of the 20th century introduced improved sanitation (sewers), water treatment plants, and vastly improved nutrition.

The sample graphs above show that infectious diseases like Measles, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, Typhoid Fever and Polio, were all at their lowest levels and dropping, BEFORE the vaccines were introduced.

The 1918 "Spanish Flu" held sinister secrets for 100 years. Based on my previous blog: "COVID 19: Another Chapter in the History of Deception and Secrecy", will we learn that the world-changing protocols from COVID-19 may also contain hidden secrets?

It doesn't matter how much you attempt to dress it up as otherwise, it is an anti-vaccination blog. All of the supposed evidence you present is from antivax sources. It's a shame you didn't – in your own words – carefully read the documentation, do your due diligence, and not blindly accept what you are being told.

SAL MARTINGANO

Paul... Let's be honest, anything that questions the status quo or mainstream acceptance on vaccinations is considered anti-vaccination. I have dozens of INDEPENDENT sources that have nothing to do with the anti-vax movement but only a limited space to for content. If you have information that proves I'm being mislead (other than traditional internet hearsay), PLEASE send it to me. I've said many times, my intent is to educate not alienate, so you can help me out with ACCURATE information. I appreciate your response

The pharma industry makes billions on vaccines and don't have to meet the same stars as typical drugs must meet. The movement to require vaccines by everyone, even those with medical issues that make taking those vaccines very harmful, is totally driven by greed and money. Only 3% have ever claimed religious or medical exemptions, in the interest of freedom, leave them alone.

SAL MARTINGANO

Steve, There were once 4 vaccine exemptions available to the public...today there is only one left, the Religious Exemption. There is the medical exemption that is always available but NEVER USED because the medical system will not all risking is "cash cow" income from Big Pharma. Slowly we have given up our "freedom" to choose vaccines or not without even a fight. My usualy retort to MDs or people hell bent on everyone being vaccinated is: "Excuse me...are you fully vaccinated? Answer: ABSOLUTELY! Great... then if you are fully protected as you say you are, what danger can I pose to you or your family if I choose not to be vaccinated?"

In California, both the religious exemption and medical exemption Have been taken away. We have nothing left here. It's so sad.

SAL MARTINGANO

July 12, 2020 at 12:05 pm

Kate.... It matters not that our Bill of Rights and Constitutional amendments gives us the right to freedom of choice. The only condition that those rights can be altered is during MARTIAL LAW, which can overrides the first 5 Amendments of the Constitution and personal "freedoms" under very specific circumstances. Martial law also implies MANDATES that can require vaccines. <https://freebeacon.com/issues/rand-paul-mandatory-vaccines-first-step-to-martial-law/> I've found the one safeguard that uphold religious exemptions is "Congregation of Universal Wisdom" <http://www.cuwisdom.org> (CONTACT THEM). Has nothing to do with what religion you are, it is about UNIVERSAL RELIGIOUS FREEDOM. IT has been tested in all 50 states....however California has become a "rogue country" lately so who knows. My advice is to NEVER GIVE UP your freedom....once gone it rarely returns.

DALE

You DO have an exemption. Your Refusal! Government is not authority. We are, the people are, because without the people giving their power away to government, then government wouldnt have the ability to push anyone around, so I took it upon myself to do the right thing no matter what anyone else does, because I dont like the assholes who comply with criminals, and I dont want to be like them. I dont register anything I buy with the state. I create my own vehicle tags. I dont pay income taxes, I dont get into a panic and run down to H&R block hoping to meet a deadline. They "Mandated" (not legislated into law) the governor made a "suggestion" that we wear masks. The retards around me wear masks, but I will not, because I know that the virus is bullshit, and since it is not a law, they cannot force me to comply, and even if it were law, I would not comply. Would it be right to comply with criminals just because you are surrounded by them?? No, and the same goes for cowards, and sheeple

SAL MARTINGANO

July 24, 2020 at 2:59 pm

Dale....what you stated is mostly true, in terms of CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE in the face of governmental tyranny. However there are constitutional laws that were approved by the people (people vote for the representatives who uphold their views). However, if a majority of those representatives vote their minds and not their constituents, then need to be removed. That's where the people regain their rights, as in FREEDOM OF SPEECH and to PROTEST. What we are seeing now is a BASTARDIZATION of our own laws where people stop paying attention to their rights and give them away to anarchists. Once the anarchists gain control over our civilian rights, it will take a REVOLUTION (civil war) to get them back. Unfortunately, we are approaching that tipping point now. The problem is your rights and mine (example: self protection) are ignored in favor of the SHEEPLE who will only act favorably when its THEIR families, THEIR businesses etc are at stake. Sorry for the "babbling" (BTW..I agree with your spirit and action steps) but for now...you will not get support from the spineless because they swallowed the 'COOL-AID' of socialism. Be careful my friend and choose your battles wisely... even if you are 100% correct. i APPLAUD YOUR SPIRIT

Such laws are unconstitutional by definition.

SAL MARTINGANO

eg: I will accept your vaccination if you doctor, nurse, hospital administrative board , hospital ceo, state representatives sign here under oath that you and your associates et al accept full commercial liability without statute of limitation for any and all inadequate science, gross negligence in quality control, untested adjuvants, for any and all adverse reactions, adverse cascades, adverse triggers to kown/unknown and hidden existimg conditions that could potentially harm or in fact harm my physical, emotional, mental and spiritual well being. Have a nice day

SAL MARTINGANO

August 12, 2020 at 5:19 pm

Wolfgang...Given any other circumstances but the “vaccine industry”, what you stated is 100% correct. However, for the vaccine industry to maintain their autonomy and PROFIT incentives, against the myriad of lawsuits resulting from their vaccine product ingredients, the government granted total immunity from any and all prosecution, resulting from injuries caused by their products. Additionally, the MD's and medical facilities that administer the vaccines are also immune from prosecution. Instead a fund was set up by the vaccine makers putting 25 cents from every vaccine into t special fund that people can apply too for damages. Terribly long story, but to the present day, the motive is to vaccinate every person on the planet. As of this election cycle the powers to be “Gates and Rockefeller foundations” are pushing to eliminate ALL EXEMPTIONS as well.....implying (as you said).....have a nice day !!

Sal and others,

our constitution is above the government, the parliament and the courts and no state of emergency/disaster or whatever can override our constitutional rights. WELSH v. UNITED STATES, 398 U.S. 333 (1970), 398 U.S. 333, WELSH v. UNITED STATES, CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT, No. 76., Argued January 20, 1970, Decided June 15, 1970 QUOTE 3. Section 6 (j) contravenes the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment by exempting those whose conscientious objection claims are founded on a theistic belief while not exempting those whose claims are based on a secular belief. To comport with that clause an exemption must be “neutral” and include those whose belief emanates from a purely moral, ethical, or philosophical source. Pp. 356-361. END QUOTE It ought to be understood that “religious objection” includes “secular objection”. Garrit...You are spot on with your comment. The issue is not that the law is not clear about our constitution, it is that modern day courts and judges can and often over ride established law. The issue is how to stop rouge judges from using their power to ignore established court decisions? There is a process for this to occur legally but in times of crisis...real or contrived, temporary judicial decisions can over ride previous decisions...as in the case of MARSHALL LAW. of course these “temporary” actions are supposed to end when the crisis is over but they rarely do. In fact, Marshall Law has never been lifted since it was declared by Abraham Lincoln in 1860. Marshall Law is the basis for ALL presidential executive orders, since it is the only legal way to override the constitution. It remains open precisely to invoke “emergency” actions. Unfortunately, it has morphed into covering healthcare crises as well as protection from foreign country invasions. I’ve followed all of Del Bigtree’s work and have an entire presentation I do based on William Thompsons confessions. I appreciate y our comments...keep it coming!

“However there are constitutional laws that were approved by the people (people vote for the representatives who uphold their views).” – so? They may have been approved unanimously by those people then, but why should I be bound to those people’s decisions? Should my decisions be binding to people 10 generations from now?

The only thing that is binding is morality, ie. do not initiate harm against other sentient beings.

“However, if a majority of those representatives vote their minds and not their constituents, then need to be removed.” – why do we need representatives, and what if we want to represent ourselves only. Why would we need anybody’s permission? We cannot give them, or delegate to them, rights that we ourselves do not have. So we all have equal rights – no one has one more or one less right than anyone. The very existence of government is based on the false notion that a “ruling class” has the “authority” to do something mere mortals do not have, and this notion is logically unsound given that we all have equal rights and cannot delegate rights to others that we ourselves do not have.

SAL MARTINGANO

April 16, 2021 at 1:26 am

Nikola...VERY well stated. The concept of having a representative republic has long lost its purpose. Representatives have become a popularity contest and I dare say "their" motives have become self-serving to their "political party" rather than to the constituents they were to serve. Secondly, term limits MUST be changed. Members of the House of Representatives term out every 2 years on the even years YET THEY HAVE AN UNLIMITED number of terms they can serve. This becomes a self-serving "career" rather than a service position. Whereas the Senate, there is a 2 term limit.

In regards to your section on the flu of 1918 being caused by meningitis vaccine; your linked article does not support this claim whatsoever. The article discusses that cause of death may have been bacterial pneumonia. It is still common practice to this day to treat viral pneumonias with antibiotics as the risk for secondary bacterial pneumonias is high. Can you please show me exactly where in the linked article you found your information that deaths were caused by a meningitis vaccine? Or was that an assumption?

However, my comments are based on "Medical and scientific experts now agree that bacteria, not influenza viruses, were the greatest cause of death during the 1918 flu pandemic". There was a reference to Dr Fauci in the article he said; "We agree completely that bacterial pneumonia played a major role in the mortality of the 1918 pandemic," BTW: Dr. Fauci's actual statement in context was SCRUBBED from the web....hmmmm!

DM

July 16, 2020 at 3:24 am

Sal, you may also want to look into the role of fever-suppressant pain killers which were widely distributed at the end of WWI – there are historic sources that note they were given "by the half-handful" and "as often as necessary". By today's standards it appears they were over-dosing people and likely caused many to have kidney/liver failure. This is consistent with many medical reports of the time, too.

SAL MARTINGANO

July 16, 2020 at 2:02 pm

DM...During the 1918 pandemic, very little was actually known about viral management. Infact, the new pharmaceutical industry inherited a golden opportunity to experiment on humans without the need for "trials". The use of vaccines required volunteer test subjects...in this case entire populations became volunteer test subjects, since death was hardly a detractor under the circumstances. You are right that experimental use of pain killers, fever reducers and whatever else was available, also got thrown into the mix. Oddly, if you go to the archives, President Wilson, never mentioned the pandemic during his presidency, since his concern was WW1. The point is Covid-19 is a social media phenomenon, occupying every inch of airtime...leading to OVERSTATED and factually false statements without repercussions. Pretty Sad

SAL MARTINGANO

December 23, 2020 at 4:20 am

Logosphile.. No one can predict how an individual will react to a vaccine nor can they predict how a person reacts to any medication. Vaccines have many adjuvants (ingredients that enhance the properties of the vaccine) plus ingredients that are not listed on the labels. Vaccines are the only mass consumable item that has no obligation to disclose what's in the vaccine. Vaccine manufacturers are in business of producing SYNTHETIC toxic substances that are supposed to mimic natural substances. Problem is that natural substances CANNOT be patented therefore no money in it. Toxic substances lead to horrific reactions in some people, enough to cause thousands of lawsuits which inhibit their profit factors to their investors. Long story but.....this is what led to the "vaccine compensation act". If injured or death occurs via a vaccine, a certain portion of the profits from every vaccine is put into the fund to compensate people for their loss WITHOUT a lawsuit. Problem is it can take up years for a decision along with others waiting for the same thing.

If all we do is research the founder of the "Modern" Medical System, we learn that it was John D. Rockefeller and the Rockefeller Foundation that's behind it. Rockefeller is called a philanthropist by the mainstream media and academia pushes his practices, but those of us who've done years of research into what's going on in the world today regarding corruption, pandemics, massive mandated vaccines for babies and children in order to be allowed to attend public school, etc. realize that there is definitely a conspiracy going on against humanity. It is not a conspiracy "theory" (a phrase coined by the CIA after the Kennedy Assassination), but a conspiracy. More and more people are waking up to the truth and the powers that've been in charge for millennia are losing their grip. The massive awakening process that's going on now is their greatest fear.

Joanne.... Well stated. Rockefeller Foundation influenced the development and acceptance of "western" medicine better known as Allopathic medicine. This includes the use of DRUGS, RADIATION and SURGERY as the basis for maintaining health. Backed by the Rockefeller Foundation, alternate forms of healthcare only receive lip service. An ever growing number of people are realizing that hundreds of thousands of people are dying from the treatment, every year. When you begin to see MANDATES for former elective medical procedure's you can be assured that "Allopathy" is being challenged. Unfortunately, our decision makers are mere puppets for the medical model, including the very CDC. Another book that speaks to this truth about vaccines killing people during the “Spanish Flu pandemic” is the Invisible Rainbow. Vaccines are not effective, are not required to the rigorous standards that pharmaceuticals are and have nearly zero liability when they cause harm or death! My wife died from a neurological disease brought on by the annual flu vaccine! We both worked in healthcare but I refused vaccines and still do while she trusted them. I begged her for years to quit taking them and she died May 18 2019 after 26 months of pure hell!

Tim... I am truly sorry for your loss. Your statements are true and are part of the reason for “freedom of choice’ regarding vaccines. My basic position is that is a person is vaccinated and feels confident about his immunity, then that person should have no grievance against those who choose not to be vaccinated, since they are now “protected”. Likewise, forcing vaccinations on the public under the guise of public safety is playing on the ignorance of the uninformed. ALL VACCINES are given on the natural downslope of the disease process, since it takes years to develop true double blind testing. it is disingenuous to claim that vaccines have stopped ANY disease since there is virtually no data supporting that “cure” DURING THE ACTUAL HEIGHT OF THE DISEASE.....only computer models programmed to support the vaccine agenda. So, if a person feels vaccination is appropriate...have at it. For those of us who seek natural “lifetime antibody” immunity via exposure, it is our decision.....especially since our decision should have NO ADVERSE effect on the vaccinated.

S. Nagar, I appreciate your concern and conviction. Scientific method method means (among many other things) testing the 'vaccine' (in this case) against a (TRUE) placebo, during 3 separate and reproducible trials...first with animals then with human subjects. If you care to look deeper than what is assumed by statements made by the pharmaceutical company that is looking for the patent, they NEVER...NEVER use a TRUE placebo (sugar water or some inert substance). They compare their "TESTING" vaccine against a similar vaccine that has proven to be ineffective or not related to the disease process at all, as the PLACEBO. REMARKABLY the testing vaccine proves at least as effective or statistically more effective than the older vaccine. However, very often the testing vaccine is found to be no more effective than a non vaccine at all like sugar water. This of course would not look good and is never reported. Does this sound like SCIENTIFIC METHOD TO YOU? I can go on but I don't want to bore you with facts. FYI....I'm not anti-vaccine. In my previous and upcoming blogs, that deal with vaccines, you will find charts demonstrating that the ALL vaccines were introduced on the decline of the disease curve....usually at the lower 1/4 of the curve. Therefore statistics "post vaccine" show a steady decline in the disease BUT what you don't see is that the same linear curve downward existed before the vaccine. If I make you sick, I'm terribly sorry....contrary information that you might not know about sometimes does that to people.

S.Nagar, As a population we rarely hear or know anything about vaccines except what they are for and whatever the vaccine makers allow to be printed. Have you ever researched what was actually in a vaccine, other than the "virus" particle intended to confirm immunity? Here are some ingredients you should be aware of: Ammonium Sulfate (suspected stomach, liver and respiratory system poison), Beta- Propiolactone (known cancer causing agent of the liver and skin), Genetically modified Yeast, animal, bacterial and viral DNA (can cause genetic mutations), Latex Rubber (I have no idea why!!), Monosodium Glutamate (MSG..an allergic neurotoxin), Aluminum (implicated in Alzheimers, Dementia, seizures and allergic reactions), Formaldehyde (embalming fluid), Polysorbate 80 (smermacide), Mercury (found in ALL flu vaccines, one of the most poisonous substances on the planet), Phenoxyethanol (antifreeze) and 7 other agents that have absolutely nothing to do with the intent of the vaccine but are used to keep the vaccines from going rancid during storage. These are the ingredients that can cause deadly reactions in some. Sorry for the lengthy comment but most people will NEVER understand what's in a vaccine

Big Pharma have been taken to court and its found they have not been testing vaccines saftey for 30 years

SAL MARTINGANO

I've listed what's in a typical vaccine, that has absolutely nothing to do with the purpose of the vaccine itself. These ingredients are considered preservatives, like Ethol Mercury, Aluminum, formaldehyde.....or Adjuvants like Phenol/phenoxyethanol (ingredient in antifreeze), glutaraldehyde (causes birth defects) as well as things like Polysorbate 80 (spermicide) and Butyphosphate (poisonous to nerve cells). So my question to those that willing to accept vaccines at face value.....this is why vaccines are not tested for safety....THEY CAN'T BE !! because vaccines contain toxic substances that react differently in different people. When BIG PHARMA is taken to court, they simply pay the fines and move on...their income from billions of vaccines is staggering. There is not another substance on the market for human consumption that answers to NO ONE.

Hi there, in response to your comment they have actually not been 'tested for safety for years' and am just curious if you can provide any independent studies that prove vaccine safety?

A recent case in America proved in one of the high courts that vaccines have never been proven to be safe by independent research, and failed to do so in a court of law.

Also just something interesting to note; pregnant ladies and babies have also never been included in experiments/research so while they are told they have to get them, the safety on those groups has never been tested and so there is no actual proof of lab tested safety.

SAL MARTINGANO

July 26, 2020 at 1:04 am

Sally... You are correct that vaccines are NOT tested for safety against a pure placebo but instead tested against other similar vaccines, which have also never been tested for safety. Vaccine manufacturers have full government exemptions from liability and so do doctors who administer them. The reason is that the lawsuits for damages will severely cut into their profit factors, so they simply will not produce the vaccines unless immune from prosecution. That's why they flatly refuse to perform any safety tests. Instead vaccine manufacturers agreed to a Vaccine Injury fund where people can go to apply for damages which is extremely difficult to prove against the army of lawyers the vaccine manufacturers have.

SAL MARTINGANO

August 26, 2020 at 11:23 pm

Nicole...I read your comment to S.nagar and would just add that Big Pharma and the entire vaccine industry maintains full immunity from prosecution. In 1986, Congress passed the “National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act” (NCVIA), in which Justice Antonin Scalia wrote: “No Vaccine manufacturer shall be liable in a civil action for damages arising from a vaccine-related injury or death associated with the administration of a vaccine....” In doing so, vaccine makers got a free pass to spend essentially NOTHING on safety testing, since they can not be sued. In short, field testing has taken the place of safety testing. In it’s place, the “National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program” was formed. <https://www.hrsa.gov/vaccine-compensation/index.html> NOTE: The rhetoric has always been...”The benefits of vaccines far outweighs the risks” Of course this means nothing when someone like your father falls victim to a vaccine... Judicial Watch reported that when too many adverse reaction claims or deaths come in because of a particular vaccine, the vaccine is simply pulled from the market. The latest example is a $6 million settlement against the Gardasil vaccine (Human Papillomavirus vaccine). BTW: there were 200 other claims filed.

JERRY

August 30, 2020 at 6:33 pm

Nicole Louis ... First of all my condolences on your father’s death. May I ask what type of vaccine he was subjected to? The reason I ask is that my wife and I got the newer shingles vaccine (Shingrix) in January of last year. I got it because a friend of mine had shingles the previous year and it was pretty rough. We were told that many people experience flu-like symptoms to the vaccine but that was to be expected. That happened to me but not my wife. There is a followup shot. Same deal, flu-like symptoms for me but not my wife. I got my shot in May and 4 days later when I got up in the morning my face was semi-numb. There has been no improvement with that condition. I later learned that because of the government rules for protection of vaccine makers that I have no recourse. I have been dealing with an intractable headache for the last 19 years. A neurologist informed in June of last year that I have had lupus all of that time because of an immune response to an inguinal hernia mesh. The intensity of that headache has increased after the vaccine. I have been told that removing the mesh would result in more harm than good. I’m tempted to try doing that anyway. I think the lupus is why I had bad reactions to the vaccine and my wife didn’t.

SAL MARTINGANO

August 31, 2020 at 2:08 am

Jerry...I read your comments to Nicole and I would like to add some insights, in hopes that what happened to Nicole's dad will not happen to others. Shingles is an opportunist virus that is a left over from the chicken pox (Varicella) virus. In short, Shingles is the adult version of chicken pox... only a lot worse. All childhood diseases were meant to PRIME the immune system when in adulthood. Vaccines to STOP childhood diseases are doing a great dis-service to the person, both as a child and as an adult. Vaccines are marketed to the parents as a way not disrupting the parents lifestyles (work or otherwise) by not having to stay home and care for their child for the 10 days to 2 weeks. Here is how childhood diseases effect the body as an adult.....the bigger the case of chickenpox as a child the less likely shingles as an adult. The Varicella virus never leaves the body and usually only rears its ugly head when the adult's immune system is under great stress, either physically or mentally, or if the adult is immune compromised by a form of auto-immune issue (in your case Lupis perhaps). Other examples: The deeper the "RED RASH" of measles, as a child, protects the adult from all 5 types of skin cancers and is less likely to develop I.B.S. Not taking the Whooping Cough vaccine makes the child less likely from developing Asthma. Missing the Rubella vaccine makes you less likely from developing Arthritis...there are many others but you get the point.

You and your wife are totally different with respect to how you react to vaccines. RULE OF THUMB...Once a bad reaction to ANY vaccine, is an automatic red flag from other vaccines. The Inguinal Hernia Mesh can cause latent "immune reactions" especially in those with forms of auto-immune issues. In my opinion (I'm not giving you medical advice), you need to stay away from vaccines and get "good" medical advice (discussing your immune compromised issue) before submitting to normally routine procedures.

JERRY

September 4, 2020 at 3:33 pm

Sal ... Thanks for responding to my reply to Nicole. I had already made the decision to never get another vaccine of any type for the rest of my life. I plan on seeing a neurologist who does testing on vitamin and mineral levels to see if it would help the lupus. I've been told that trying to remove the mesh after about 20 years of it being in there would do more harm than good. On a side note, I ordered your "Boys of Brooklyn" for direct shipment to my wife's older brother in New Hampshire who, like my wife, was born and raised in New York. After reading some of the reviews on Amazon I have a feeling it's going to be right up his alley. I wlll probably get the Kindle version for me and my wife.

September 4, 2020 at 5:24 pm

Jerry....Under your circumstances, I believe you are making the correct decision. BE SURE to document what has happened to you and that you are at risk with further vaccines. The only exemption that will hold is a MEDICAL exemption, which is only gotten in cases like yours. SAL MARTINGANO

September 16, 2020 at 11:41 pm

J Jager.....Now we are witnessing the charade of vaccines. The science involved in vaccine production is designed to offer a 3 step process of different test groups of increasing group sizes and backgrounds. Scientific method is designed to be reproducible, requiring observation of various groups for problems that might arise. Further ALL vaccines are supposed to be tested against a pure placebo (saline). The fact is that NONE are.they are tested against an unrelated vaccine or concoction so they can say that the new vaccine is effective. Vaccine makers know that testing their vaccine against a placebo is dangerous because often the vaccine is no more effective than the placebo or test subjects get better with the placebo which blows their whole narrative. Fast tracking a vaccine means that the illusion of being 'scientific' is unnecessary because its the TESTING of the 3 groups that takes the time not the making and distribution of the vaccine

If you can come up with a copy of one test showing the safety and efficacy of any vaccine, please post it and share it because no one else in the world has been able to come up with any evidence. They are actually exempted from any kind of legal action against them.

SAL MARTINGANO

September 18, 2020 at 2:24 pm

Galderman...Yes, you are correct, there are no safety tests for vaccines because with complete immunity from prosecution (granted by President Regan, believe it or not), safety testing is a useless exercise that would only expose the vaccine makers deceitful underbelly and expose them to an unnecessary exposure. The only testing that is done, is to make a statement that the vaccine works...NOT AGAINST A PURE PLACEBO but against a similar or dis-similar vaccine. In other words the populations become clandestine petri dishes, for collecting money not safety information. The stats are all there but you will never find them on Google or social media. Take the info or leave it, I just know that the worst flu my family ever had was from the only flu vaccination we ever had. 2 days before Thanksgiving; fortunately the symptoms hit the morning of Thanksgiving so we didn't pass it on. Telling people to "do their research" is part of the con. The fact that you're commenting only to debunk with the only generic argument for vaccines (check your sources/research again...) without any contribution supports that. Have you noticed the autism epidemic? Notice that HIV doesn't cause AIDS? Notice that I've seen about 2 dozen "cures found" for aids since AIDS was introduced but was never implemented? It boils down to common sense; the medical "professionals" aren't thinking for themselves and what they're learning from the textbooks don't even make sense and neither does your argument.

Do not let these morons call you by a name like this, anti-vaccine, because to be anti-vaccine is to be pro-science, while to be pro-vaccine is to be completely in a faith-based cult of personality.

WOW, thank you, Clint!! This is what I try so hard to get across to my circle of influence – vaccines are ANTI-NATURE! And by that token, they are anti-GOD. Anyone willing to do the digging and educate themselves will find that God has already provided for us everything that we need for complete wellness here on Earth. There is absolutely no need for man's highly toxic intervention. I am living proof – I am 66 years young, have survived 3 bouts of cancer with God's medicine, never get colds, flu, etc., and can run circles around others my age.

P.S. Love your video – thank you!!

Denise, Don't misunderstand my words. I don't disapprove of vaccines; the choice is yours as well as it is mine. I fully realize the medical literature's support for vaccines but understand that ALL medical schools MUST teach vaccines as the treatment for contagious diseases BECAUSE they are fully sponsored and funded by the pharmaceutical industry. Follow the money trail and you will find that medical schools are PROHIBITED to teach anything about natural ways of obtaining immunity. It doesn't mean that "Natural Immunity" obtained from exposure doesn't exist, it's just not part of medical school protocol.

Marilyn...Here is a question I'd like to propose to you and others who may read this. Big Pharma and the vaccine manufacturers have been making medicines and vaccine preparation for ions, however, did it ever occur to you that NONE of them are designed to CURE. We assume that is the purpose but WHY WOULD ANY PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANY PRODUCE PRODUCTS THAT WOULD PUT THEM OUT OF BUSINESS? Big Pharma makes product to TREAT not CURE and are designed to be used for LIFE (blood pressure, cholesterol, irritable bowel syndrome, psychotropic drugs, etc) The same is true for ALL vaccines. Presently, everyone is supposed to be vaccinated with 16 vaccines consisting of 72 doses...none of them ever disappearing because the disease process is ever being cured. Instead, each year more is added to the regime. Did you know that Big Pharma is TOTALLY immune from any prosecution and can not be sued for any reason. The American Cancer Society's, for example, own website states the ACS was formed to eliminate cancer yet everything they do revolves around the BEST CANCER TREATMENT and DIAGNOSIS available but doesn't mention CURE. When the ACS started in 1913, one in 10 – 20,000 got cancer. Today one in six get cancer. There are over a dozen known cancer cures that the ACS never acknowledges and the FDA prosecutes. Toxin free vaccines already exist but are not approved by the FDA, therefore you have to go out of country to seek them out. Sorry for the length but there is alot to discover.

The CDC covered up the connection of the MMR vaccine to autism and the proof is in the movie documentary "vaxxed". Vaxxed 2 is about vaccines in general and how much healthier kids are that never got any vaccine. Rent the movie downloads and watch for yourself – the facts are undeniable. I noticed your reply to Paul and I want you to know that the “progressives” & BIG PHARMA, have bought their way into the legal system, enacting an EMERGENCY CLAUSE into all state laws allowing the governors to enact a mandatory vaccine order that SUPERCEEDS ALL “EXEMPTIONS” IF THEY CLAIM THAT THEIR STATE IS IN A (HEALTH) EMERGENCY STATUS. This quiet secret has been kept from the public in order not to provoke violence and give the illusion that there IS A WAY not to get vaccinated. In short, they are lying to induce compliance until they make the declaration. This sad chapter in vaccination is made possible by enacting the emergency powers of “MARSHAL LAW” , which over-rides our constitutional rights. Unfortunately, implementation comes with police powers of enforcement. We will see how this plays out if they continue to push the Covid pandemic.

Hi Paul,

I am a mom of 10 kids and back when my first few were little I began to have to question my kids' doctors because the medicines they were prescribed for this or that illness (usually antibiotics) sometimes made them act crazy even while they were sick – which is a contradiction since when my kids were sick they usually acted it in that they wanted to stay in bed and sleep because they didn't feel well. I began reading about attaining good health using “natural” medicine (food being the best medicine, as Hippocrates said) and was amazed at the great success I had returning my children to health when they became ill.

During my research I came across those charts that are posted in this article showing the decline of Polio, measles and the other illnesses that children were routinely vaccinated against, and it opened up a whole new arm of research for me. I am an “independent thinker” and willing to believe what I find makes the most sense. Are you? Or are you possibly aligned with Big Pharm yourself?

This is for all the people posting here who somehow have managed to type with one hand while rolling up their sleeve in preparation for the jab — you people who question nothing, which is all the author is doing, and you stick a label on him because that's the easy thing to do.

“One of the saddest lessons of history is this: If we've been bamboozled long enough, we tend to reject any evidence of the bamboozle. We're no longer interested in finding out the truth. The bamboozle has captured us. It's simply too painful to acknowledge, even to ourselves, that we've been taken. Once you give a charlatan power over you, you almost never get it back.”

— Carl Sagan, The Demon-Haunted World: Science as a Candle in the Dark

Covid-19 is a bad virus. Nobody is questioning it. BUT, you need a test to prove you have it and the PCR tests are flawed! And even if you are infected, you have a 99.995% chance of recovering, 94% if you're over 70. With odds like that, why do you need a vaccine in the first place?

I'm throwing out the following drugs:

Thalidomide

1976 Swine Flu Vaccine

Zoloft

People have been harmed by these drugs. In the case of Thalidomide, children were born maimed! A friend's wife was a Pharm Rep for Abbott. She confessed that these companies put aside millions of dollars in a war chest every time a new drug is released to market — for the lawsuits they know they will be hit with. Ever see those commercials on TV from lawyers seeking out people who've been damaged by drugs and vaccines? Big Pharm doesn't care because while they pay out millions in settlements, they've made billions in profits!

These Covid vaccines were rushed through in less than a year with NO ANIMAL TRIALS and little human trials. The human trials had some serious side effects but they've gone on and released them to market anyway. Normal time for a vaccine is 10 years — and there has never been a successful coronavirus vaccine!

Given the track record of the pharmaceutical industry, and given the fact that if you get the vaccine and fall ill — or something much worse — you will be shit out of luck. Big Pharm and your family doctor are immune (pun intended) from any liability. And yet you want demonize the author as an "anti-vaxxer" when you should be asking the same questions. But I suppose that can be attributed to the media's all out blitz with their propaganda.

To trust this vaccine is akin to the battered wife believing her husband when he says he will never hit her again just after the 100th beating.

In doing so, some of that information comes from non traditional sources like historical books like that of Eleanor McBean, PhD, N.D., who describes in detail, personal and family experiences during the 1918 "Spanish Flu" pandemic. If this is considered an ANTI-VAX reference, then the person is not really interested in "NON TRADITIONAL" information but has a problem considering information that is contrary to their own. I take no offense to senseless name calling but I do respond to contrary opinions and statements as a way of expanding my own knowledge base. Samar, Unfortunately the vaccine voices pushed by Gates and friends are difficult to avoid. All those who want the freedom to choose must FIGHT for it to remain in our constitution. The pro vaccine elites are working on "wording" that essentially would over ride constitutional choice...that is...if "THEY" feel NOT being vaccinated will cause IRREPARABLE HARM to the many during a pandemic, they have the right to force vaccinate. This is not to be taken lightly...all they need to do is convince congress it is in the best interest of the country and it can be done. Now you know why the ANTI VAX crowd is forever present....TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHT OF FREEDOM OF CHOICE, while not hindering the rights of those who wish to vaccinate.

This plandemic is ALL about control and taking away the freedom of the people. We as people have the right to our own body. The Kabal, Deep State, Illuminati...or whatever name you want to give it, only wants to profit from their human property and they do not give a damn if you suffer, or even die. The truth is so ugly that many will be unable to consciously go there and rather stay stuck in their illusion of freedom. It's time for all to wake up. I thank U for this article as to shed light on the many lies that have been bestowed upon humanity for eons of time. Covid-19 is asking for humanity to wake the F.... up!

SAL MARTINGANO

September 18, 2020 at 2:47 pm

Cornellis... Thank you for the kind words. Unfortunately, you are absolutely correct. To make better sense as to how this can happen, you must understand that POWER is more powerful than TRUTH, in the world of the elites. Those who have the power and the money control the narrative. The example lies in the fact that all our vaccine exemptions, Limits of Liability and even FEDERAL law itself can be eradicated by a JUDGE by invoking the simple phrase... THIS IS AN EMERGENCY. Presently, we are pacified by having the RIGHT TO EXEMPTION. However, in a declared EMERGENCY..NO VACCINE EXEMPTIONS ARE ACCEPTED. This is because there are 2 interpretations of the law. One set of laws for the people and one set of laws for the elites (who make the laws). This fact only becomes apparent when an EMERGENCY is declared (whether real or fabricated). So, we can make all the noise we want.....unless we can expose the CABAL and bring massive awareness of their injustice, the elites have nothing to fear. You can be 100% legally justified in a particular vaccine action, yet a Federal Judge can simply IGNORE your suit and order punitive damages against you. Drs who do not tote the line, simply lose their license to practice. Sad but true. Same is true for the GUN CONTROL CROWD..."Confiscate guns from the people and defund the police yet the elites have ARMED GUARDS and a PRIVATE SECURITY company for themselves. ENUF SAID !!

This information is indeed very disturbing to say the least. I have always said that if someone discovered a cure for say cancer, the big pharma companies would sit on it and it would never see the light of day! Because they'd be out of business. The whole aim of big pharma is to merely "control" disease NOT eradicate it, where's the money in that!! Ditto the Covid 19. The big pharma are overjoyed, here's another opportunity to make big bucks out of government. Lets try every "vaccine" or drug we can, from anti-malarial to ebola, how about thalidomide, we've got tons of stuff sitting in a warehouse, we'll just change the name and re-brand it. Claim we've discovered a miracle cure! Don't laugh this is a real possibility, after all cash is far, far more important than peoples lives!

To add to James's comment, but in a different slant ("... A month ago I was asked at KAOS Crew Radio With Larry Levine, "Terry Cook what do you think of the virus?" My reply, "I think there are several times more good coming from that than which are bad." For the examples, Fracking companies are declaring bankruptcy, thousands of times more people now wash their hands for at least 20 seconds, all stores are wiping down shopping carts, huge numbers are wiping down everything they touch with sanitizing wipes, lots of folks are learning so much which they give little or no thought of doing like never use hand driers, record numbers of dogs & cats are being adopted from the rescue & humane society shelters with NO signs of people giving up their pets due to losing jobs, it has served in accomplishing what seemed impossible before, such as waking people up ending the massive amount of citizens living in a complacent mind set, far less fossil fuel being used bringing cleaner air, the relief stimulus package to give most common folk a $1,200 check, while most of us know this package is corporate & big bank bailouts, planned and set in place a year before the virus came to town, and bringing a great incentive to prepare for the excl-elation of the war to survive coming from the rulers of the world, 99% less Chem-trails, big numbers of commercial jet air craft are not polluting the air we breathe. Now for the bad for us, we are facing the next steps of the cronies setting in place what was planned many decades before like testing, mandatory vaccine with chips installed, the Rockefeller empire of wealth & greed American Medical Associations bilking of our tax payer's money to them by way of a $13,000 check to all admitted in hospitals with $39,000.00 if a ventilator is used. With 1.2 million given to 43,000 millionaires the increase of 2.3 trillion to 6.2 trillion coming in the near future. That is what make this whole story so unbelievable.....20 million died (estimates go to 100 million) but no one knows for sure. What we do know is that healthy people died after being vaccinated BEFORE being exposed to any returning WW1 soldiers. YES... there was mass pandamonium to get to a facility to be vaccinated. Keep in mind, No one actually had any idea what this "flu" was before making the vaccines (think about it). Further, this was planned event by the Rockefeller Foundation LONG in advance of any concern, in order to have that many vaccines made in advance. You can forget about any prior testing.....

If you'd seen your partner drop cold on the floor and lips turn blue in front of you're eyes you'd question it. Bernadette, I think you stated the issue very well. Fear is a great motivator, especially when that fear is motivated by entities smaller than life itself but can have devastating consequences. As the country fights for the right vaccine, the human body is busy at work categorizing the virus and developing the proper antibody BEFORE the virus can attach itself to the cells in your body.....providing the body is given the chance. In my opinion, hiding from the virus is contrary to how the body works to protect you and develop a full-proof immune system. What most people DON'T understand that if the body doesn't have the correct antibody at its disposal, the body MUST be infected by the virus. That is what makes people cringe....FACT: getting "sick" is the only way to get "healthy". we've been doing it for centuries, why the draconian measures for this virus?

I'm confused by this blog.

Firstly you say this isn't an anti-vacc blog, but then you have next to nothing listed as pro vaccine, which moots your proclaimed statement and makes for a very bias read.

Secondly, if all of the "vaccines" given out weren't fully developed then they were tests, not actual vaccinations.

It is sad that they used soldiers and general public as test subjects, but at that point in history they also did not have the scientific advancements to study prior to human test subjects as they do now.

Claiming that a vaccine killed them is thusly incorrect, and just adding to the misinformation that you've attempted to warn others about.

Thirdly, if you have the knowledge that vaccines are meant to prevent and reduce the risk for those most likely to suffer from the effects of the illness the vaccine is meant to stop, then you would also have the same understanding that just because there are less contagious people showing signs before a vaccine is put into use does not mean it was created for irradiation.

Most health officers that are needed for exhuming bodies need an anthrax vaccination, not because anthrax is running rampant, but because there is a high risk that a person who has been dead for several decade could have it and that particular virus can survive for hundreds of years and still be active.

Perhaps a read through by an editor, is needed to help you.

REPLY

Pat, Let me try to understand your questions and answer briefly..... First: this blog is not meant to be anti or pro vaccine, the purpose was to educate not alienate.....Second: not sure what you mean but most of these vaccines were experimental (not fully developed) at the time,i.e., being used in desperation to help stop a perceived pandemic. Third: Sorry to say that the practice of using soldiers as test subjects IS and HAS BEEN going on forever. Every military person gets a battery of vaccines and not told what they are or what they are for...soldiers have no freedom to choose, they are OWNED by the government. Fourth: No one ever proved that there was a Spanish Flu virus in the first place. It was feared that WW1 soldiers fighting in trenches and despicable, filthy conditions would surely come home with some sort of disease process. That's why the vaccines were supposed to be given to the homecoming soldiers and not the civilians, BUT the war ended to quickly and it was decided to protect the civilians instead. The result was that the entire population was blindsided but toxic substances with no natural defenses...hence the HUGE amount of deaths via pneumonia (the result of INFLAMMATION caused by toxins in the body. I have no knowledge of your antrax statement. Keep in mind there are MANY sourced documentations I provided, which go into the detail I cannot do in a blog. You raise legitimate questions, the answers to which are complex and require in depth knowledge of the era.

I have similar information, but a little different. Can you tell me what you think is wrong with my info?

More soldiers died from disease than bullets during WWI.

The Spanish Flu was neither Spanish nor Flu. According to a 2008 study by the U.S. National Institute of Health, the "predominant" killer in 1918-19 was bacterial pneumonia, and the first cases were not in Spain.

Initial outbreaks can be traced to U.S. military bases. A bacterial vaccine experiment on soldiers at Fort Riley, Kansas is one of the military epicentres of the epidemic.

The serums, anti-toxins and vaccines used on soldiers were made in horses at the Rockefeller Institute in New York (and in NJ). The same horses were used "in the preparation of diphtheria, tetanus antitoxin and antimeningococcus serum." Same horses, multiple pathogens.

When WW1 ended on November 11, 1918, soldiers returned to their home countries and colonial outposts, spreading the killer bacterial pneumonia worldwide.

During WW1, the Rockefeller Institute also sent similar batches of the antimeningococcus serum used at Fort Riley to England, France, Belgium, Italy and other countries.

Vaccine experiments like the WWI experiments on soldiers in WW1 are not a thing of the past.

Spectacular info! Thank you so much for all of this. The frightening thing happening in today's world is this is literally a war on all citizens, and those supporting the vaccine movement in today's world, Are supporting tyranny killing us.

If people believe that much and vaccination, even though I know it will lead to their death, I think it should be their choice. In today's insanity Nazi regime/Bill Gates, the new Hitler, They want to force their vaccinations, micro chips on everyone, Contact tracing, in the hopes of both killing people and controlling the balance who survive and keeping them in poverty.

If those who truly believed in vaccinations would use their brain, they would realize that of vaccinations actually worked, they would not have to force them and others who do not want them.

We are living in a terrifying time. Bill Gates literally states, even in his Ted talk that his desire is to depopulate the world. I have been blown away that it seems the majority of the world can hear what he and the medical establishment are saying, but it does not register in their brain. It's as if they've had their brains removed already, before being vaccinated and microchipped.

I've been attempting to talk sense into a friend, but likely our friendship will end because of this. I've been telling her about the hundreds of doctors and scientists who are being censored on Facebook and YouTube because they are speaking up about what's really going on. I've told her so many times that standard media is owned by big Pharma and their ads.

It blows my mind that people only want one source of information, instead of hearing all the sources and then coming to their own conclusion. Instead they choose to be brainwashed.

Thank you, Dr. Martingano, for this excellent article. I am going to share it with everyone I know. For those who are skeptical, you only need to check out VAERS (Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System) which has paid out $4.2 billion (in USA only) in vaccine damages & that is only for 1% of reported adverse vaccine effects. I have extensively researched vaccines and only recently started to question something that my parents never could quite explain about the sudden deaths of their family members between 1919 – 1925 who were previously very healthy. Everything now points me in the direction of vaccines as the only common factor. My father lost two brothers & his father's first wife (who was 35 yrs old). My mother lost a brother (8 yrs old), sister (12 yrs old) & her father (34 yrs old a very healthy man)! She had been the youngest child and had been too young to be vaccinated until the 1930s when she got the smallpox vaccine. All the adults I mention here died of 'pneumonia'. The previously healthy children just 'dropped dead'. On both sides of my family, they came from high socio-economic societies, so we cannot blame the cold, hygiene, diet, waterborne infections, etc. My father got pneumonia in 1934 and nearly died; his lungs remained badly scared for the rest of his life (he had never been sick in his life until that point). He said it was the time he'd been given the smallpox vaccine (he couldn't remember if there was any other vaccine given). It all makes a lot of sense now! In fact, he started to get the flu vaccine every year (4 yrs before his death) & almost immediately after the shot, he came down with (the 1st year & day after the vax he developed severe urticaria (he said he felt like his skin was on fire & was ripping at it like a madman. It was so frightening to watch). 2nd year, he developed shingles on his face & looked like a leper (also very frightening look). 3rd year, his legs went back, but the vascular surgeon could find any vascular blockages. 4th year he became anorexic and his weight plummeted to 42 kgs (about 92 lbs & he was a tall man). Unfortunately, his GP admitted him to hospital which turned into a nightmare & he passed away due to (what I call) 'euthanasia'.

Fauci said she stole sensitive, confidential documents and was fired. TOTAL FABRICATION... Fauci has advised 6 presidents and has been in bed with BIG PHARMA for 30+ years. No one questions him because HE IS THE EXPERT...and you don't question experts! Well, if you notice he's disappeared from the media because the scam is known. As someone who has questioned "the science is settled" on vaccines and the true motives behind big Pharma (cures vs. profit) for a good number of years now, having found this blog on a Facebook article – I found I could not stop reading. I applaud you Sal Martingano.

As a Canadian, we have our own "Chief Public Health Officer of Canada" – Dr. Theresa Tam who herself has deep ties with the "World Health Organization" and more often than not has echoed their guidelines.

Having said that, I find America's Dr. Falsie quite intriguing, and I say that not in a good way!

As you have mentioned Dr. Fauci above, I couldn't help but remember a video done by "Amazing Poly" on Dr. Fauci, which was quite the eye-opener.

I hope I am not out of line by adding the link. I believe all will find it quite interesting.

If you would like to read my many other blogs that have been censored out you can go to my Authors website <http://www.salmartingano.com> and click on blogs. Thanks for the link. Being out of line comes into play when an agenda is being pushed. Information is there for all who are interested to see. If someone doesn't like the topic, move on, but don't censor it. We have all fallen into the social media trap, and now that "they" all the data they need and the ability to control the information via algorithms, its up to the people to fight back. Thank you for the great information. I had never view the 1918 flu in this way. On a side note, anyone who has a problem with this information, should really look at one absolutely huge red flag with vaccines. That red flag is, if you are injured from a vaccine, you cannot sue the pharmaceutical company. It's the only industry exempt from being sued, but let's not question that. It's so weird how people won't question things. Vaccines should be questioned and if they hold up to the questioning, it only strengthens the truth they are selling, but they avoid questioning. Why is it that people who have never been vaccinated are not compared to people who are? That is true scientific comparison, but the pharmaceutical companies never do that. They compare vaccines to other vaccines or dosage amounts of a vaccine. Ask questions, seek motives.

SAL MARTINGANO

June 23, 2020 at 10:15 pm

Ray, Well stated !! The reason pharmaceutical companies can't be sued, nor can the medical doctors that give the vaccines, is because they FORCED the government to provide protection against lawsuits or they will not provide vaccines. Did you know that doctors receive sizable stipends from the pharmaceutical companies and insurance companies like Blue Cross/Blue Shield? For every fully vaccinated child they receive $400 but lose that reward if 65% of their practice is not fully vaccinated. In my teen years, I had so many allergies, that it was a horrible childhood. Then we moved to Canada and ALL Allergies were gone!

A day or so after The 1995 vaccination I felt really sick for several days! I KNEW something was wrong, but with almost no internet, I could not do the research on vaccines or vaccination, like it is possible today. So thank you for your very interesting post, and as a result of many years of my own research in the past, I had my own daughter NOT vaccinated. I don't understand how people can't see the big picture seriously – don't they know of people like friends or relatives who knew people in World War 1 that refused the vaccine and survived anyway?

I really appreciate coming across your blog Sal – very interesting to read.

My mum was born on the first day of the second world war in Holland – some of the things that we are reading about it now – it's baffling – don't want to know a thing about the Dutch royal family anymore – they were all involved in it – try to tell people – they think your crazy...

Thank God for my mum always writing letters to school when it was vaccine time, refusing me to have mine – I'm so glad now, even though all my friends thought I was crazy – the only one not having it. My mother made sure she did her best that we all had a healthy immune system – I caught chickenpox and measles from my brothers and sisters but really isn't that like 'Herd immunity' – but I don't agree with all the other vaccinations such as rubella and HPV etc.etc But really you're right to choose should not be taken away.... and some of us have walked away from good paying jobs because we're refused the flu vaccination.

Now my sisters have to put up with their kids being the only ones at school not having it... yeah if you refuse you're the butt of a joke, but unfortunately they've all been taken in. Please keep up the good work.

The charts we see is the decline after the vaccine was introduced but when viewing the chart in its totality, you can plainly see that the decline is the same before and after the vaccine. Sal,

Thank you so much for taking the time to gather and share this information.. I also like to share information about pharmaceutical companies and what is fascinating to me, reading a lot of the responses you are receiving here.. is that some of them are almost word for word the same responses I have also gotten. I have also made the discovery that many of the people who respond are being paid by the pharmaceutical industries themselves to counter those who question the traditional narratives and they are taught certain talking points to throw out and to not back down from those. Especially the favorite "you did not bother to read your own source. It contradicts your point." But I have found, when pressed further no elaboration is able to be made. Many different individuals giving the same..at times, word for word responses..

SAL MARTINGANO

December 15, 2020 at 4:25 am

Rachel...Yes I notice the same thing. The big take away from this is that people haven't quite come to grips with the FACT that freedom of speech will always sound good as constitutional right we Americans all have BUT the reality is that when that RIGHT is expressed through the multitude of social media platforms that are PRIVATELY owned, YOUR FREEDOM OF SPEECH IS ONLY FREE IF IT CONFORMS TO THEIR STANDARDS. Sadly, since talking freely to your neighbor is still FREE, talking to a group or organization like facebook,twitter or Reddit has to pass the WORD POLICE....

SAL MARTINGANO

June 30, 2020 at 6:12 pm

Nalani, Sorry to say but there are... Keep in mind that prior CDC statements opposed any flu vaccines for children and during pregnancy. They changed their mind because because the critical number of flu vaccines necessary for the profit margins of pharmaceutical investors was steadily dropping. People were also realizing that it made no appreciable difference with or without the flu shot....with many getting the flu directly from the shot. The pharmaceutical answer was to HYPE each upcoming flu season AS THE WORST IN HISTORY, MAKING IT ESSENTIAL FOR CHILDREN AND PREGNANT WOMEN TO GET THEIR SHOTS. To keep people from getting the flu from the shot, the vaccine makers began using DEAD or ATTENUATED (chemically inactive) viruses in the vaccines. This way you can't get the flu from the shot BUT DEAD VIRUSES CAN NOT INDUCE ANTIBODIES. Keep in mind, if there was no money in the flu vaccines there wouldn't be any...they are a BUSINESS !

Ok. Chiropractors know vast amounts of information that I, as a biochemist, do not understand. I, as a biochemist, know a vast amount of things that a chiropractor does not. Included in the things I understand in detail, is immunology. The "Spanish Flu" was indeed a flu. It was H1N1 to be exact. Just like the 2009 scare. Hemagglutinin 1 Neuraminidase 1, to be exact. Why is that relevant you may ask? The vaccine for H1N1 is not complex, all it does is inhibit the "Sa" region on the Hemagglutinin of the Spanish Flu virus. The same vaccine is used for 2009 H1N1. Vaccines are not scary. Vaccines do not contain anything that can hurt us in any more concentration than is naturally found in the foods we eat. There is no anti-vaccine myth that I personally can't debunk. Not a single one.

Please..this is not a slam on what you said about debunking but I would love to present you with facts that I do have that would be pretty hard to debunk since the information came from respected medical and pharmaceutical sources. In fact I do a 90 min live presentation called "The Vaccine Forum" that I have on DVD, where all this information is presented. I'm looking at this as an intellectual exchange of facts and ideas. As I stated many times, I'm always open to criticism if sufficient proof is presented.

Fighting the Spanish Flu

Unlike today, there were no effective vaccines or antivirals, drugs that treat the flu. (The first licensed flu vaccine appeared in America in the 1940s. By the following decade, vaccine manufacturers could routinely produce vaccines that would help control and prevent future pandemics.) 12 okt. 2010. <https://www.history.com/topics/world-war-i/1918-flu-pandemic>

Inge-Mo Haraldh.. Very true but keep in mind that The use of new vaccines required volunteer test subjects...in this case entire populations became volunteer test subjects, since death was hardly a detractor under the circumstances. Also keep in mind that the production of a NEW vaccine ALWAYS takes place well after the "flu" virus has run its course. New vaccine protocols take up to 18 months to go through the testing cycle, so its supposed benefit is mainly for FUTURE similar viral infections. The public is told that the vaccine is controlling the viral infection but if you look at the actual graph of the infection cycle of EVERY flu infection, the introduction of the vaccine appears on the lower 1/3 of the downslope of the natural course of the infection. WE NEVER SEE THOSE CHARTS. This is not an antivax statement, it is simply a factual one.

John...Actually I read this article as part of doing my research. The essence of the article revolves around what is meant by "LIVE ATTENUATED" vaccines.....simply stated it means the viral pathogen was partially killed before becoming part of the vaccine. Louis Pasture's "germ theory" was proven inaccurate by Professor Antoine Bechamp because Pasture didn't account for the fact that "germs" i.e. bacteria and viruses, MUTATE which alters the very nature and safety of the vaccine itself. Modern vaccines uses only partial DNA fragments with highly attenuated viral cultures, so as not to produce the possible violent and deadly reactions. My blog was written to introduce facts (read the documentation) never mentioned on medical sites like WebMed or Medscape. I am not an antivaxxer, I am an educator and researcher. I personally don't believe in viruses. Virusses are exosomes. Very tiny particles our cells produce to get rid of the mercury, the aluminium etc in the vaXXins or the gasses of our cars the damps in our houses etc etc etc.
Just like we defecate, our cells defecate. The turds of our cells are exactly these viruses !!!
Dr Stefan Lanka has proven this for the measles virus. He promised a lot of money for he whom could prove the existence of the measles-virus with the postulates of Robert Koch !!!

Nemesis..as you are probably aware, viruses are not living organism's. They are actually a non life form (parasite) that lives and duplicates itself from the substance of living organisms. Like ALL other known organism's that now exist on this planet, each had to develop a survival mechanism. Some are beneficial to human life, some are not. I'm not a virologist and can not definitively state that viruses exist or not but under Koch's first postulate, "the microorganism must be found in abundance in all organisms suffering from the disease, but should not be found in healthy organisms". Truth is that microorganism, like viruses, are found in healthy organisms but are kept in check by the human immune system that has developed appropriate antibodies.

There is one phrase that I heard a lot in all of my discussions with "believers" who rejected what I was claiming regarding vaccine safety: "If they allow it on the market, I must be safe, right?" (Often said in an aggravated way)

This is the real underlying problem... We are trained from kindergarten on to accept what "teachers" are saying to us, otherwise we are punished. If they say it is like that, it must be like that. If we cannot reproduce, we fail the test. Critical thinking and transparency is what can save us. Things are changing a bit I believe thanks to social media. Just a look at the statements by Fauci that Hydroxychloroquine is not safe, yet it has been used by hundreds of medical doctors successfully, with no side effects.....cuts right to the issue that the EXPERTS, who have vested interests in vaccines, would rather allow people to die and denounce a relatively safe and effective interim alternative treatment in order to WAIT FOR A VACCINES, which may never be developed. The more the LAW pushes against common sense alternatives.....you know that there is an opposing agenda at stake. Regan... Aside from the service to our country that veterans like yourself have given, the military utilizes traditional vaccines but is also the testing ground for many of the experimental vaccines, yet to be delivered to the public at large. Traditionally, service men and women are not informed of what vaccines they are getting but are statistically followed for the rest of their lives via the VA. Technically, your time in service is owned by the government, and as such following orders and protocols is not an option. Fortunately, your body fared well with all the vaccines and for the majority, that is usually the case. The downsides of traditional and experimental vaccines is that the vaccine contents can alter DNA structure, which can take decades to manifest. A personal friend left the military after Vietnam healthy but 19 years later developed Syringomyelia (spinal cord tumors), which eventually killed him. VA docs informed him that his body began fighting itself using fluid filled cysts all over his body. They also found that his DNA had been altered significantly by microbial attacks. This is exactly what multiple bacterial / viral vaccines can cause over time...if the body cannot fend them off. Sorry for the long answer but it's not an easy answer to give. My dad lost his cousin when they joined the Navy during WW2. After receiving their vaccinations, his cousin died from anaphylactic shock hours later, from the volume of vaccines received that his body couldn't process.

Considering many factors, let me copy-paste here "Precautions to be taken if any individual is forcefully vaccinated or inoculated"

Copy-pasted from Vijai Pawar's Face Book Post with subsequent comments – (02.08.2020)

Vijai Pawar – 18h •

Precautions to be taken if any individual is forcefully vaccinated or inoculated:—

If, however, vaccination or inoculation has to be submitted to by any individual, for reasons beyond his control, the vaccine, serum or other antigenic material should, if possible, be at once washed with cold water and then the site of the vaccination should be bandaged with a wet earth pack if possible some saatic green herbal juices can be added. The diet should be reduced to one light meal a day. Fasting for that day will be more advisable.

If there's a time gap between washing with cold water, it is likely that the filth might have gone into the system. In such cases, it will be better to prolong the fasting (either on tender coconut water or some raw vegetables juices in moderate quantity) for three days. The poison forced into the system forced thus would be eliminated in this way in about a week. On no account should it be allowed to be retained in the system. This message will be of help in countries where it is compulsory.

Graeme Ward Vijai Pawar... I'd like to know how is the wet earth pack made and what is saatvic green herbal juice... 😊 Like Vijai Pawar Graeme Ward .The wet earth pack is made by adding some say 10 to 20 %of mortar sand which is used for masonary work to the clay then it is laid on a fine cotton cloth and poured water to moisten it.then applied to the affected part.

2.Saatvic herbal juice is obtained from the stem of the banana ,or grass meant asfodder for cows ,Buffalo (Bernardo grass in Australia, Europe) ,or from bael leaves,or Juice of Ashgourd or white pumpkin. please let me know if any clarification needed

Parameswaran Devasigamani If it is given as tablets, we can easily remove it from the system sir., that is exsactly the criminals are giving us through the injections which directly enter the blood just like snakes venom. IT IS ACTUALLY OUTRAGEOUS ACT ON THE BODY A KIND OF BIO TERRORISM. 50 y back , i remember clearly, only very rarely, injections were given. Now it has become an essential tool of bio terrorism as we or the docs or the nurses of the govt do not know what is inside it.

If it is through mouth, we can take triphala and clear it up in 4 hours.

once entered blood stream like snake venom, the spot should be tightly bandaged with ropes or bands to p revent them going to heart and ice can be kept on spot to prevent its rushing into h eart. Even if the body is highly immune, these poisons they are going to give will do much harm and wont leave any one die in peace ...

they will induce suicidal feelings or murder feelings and ppl will kill each other and die at the end. That is the kaliyuga drama we all await.

Karl...That is true. THE key to understanding the intent of this blog is to underscore that vaccines were given to quell the panic created by the thought of WW1 soldiers who “are carrying all kinds of diseases” will be reuniting with family and spreading their “unknown pathogens” to the civilian population. Understand that the panic was initiated because a vaccine, which was intended to be given to ALL homecoming soldiers. was not available since the war ended too soon. Therefore all the experimental vaccine ideas were forced to surface and instead given to the civilian population as “protection”, without ever knowing what the viral pathogen even was. The eventual culprit vaccine turned out to be a bacterial meningococcal vaccine which had nothing to do with what the soldiers MIGHT actually be bringing home. The result was a CREATED pandemic that killed millions. Understand that this is just a small piece of the amount of experimental vaccines that were actually used...so who knows what really happened. What we do know (40 years later) is that it was the VACCINE TREATMENT PROTOCOLS that initiated the massacre and not some foreign virus. The homeopaths didn't have a chance to do all they could because of the PANIC created by the pharmaceutical co's and media of the day.

Thanks very much for writing this article on the Spanish Flu of 1918. I appreciate the research you did.

When I was a kid, there were about 6 vaccines that I had to take. Today there are what, 30 or so? Why do all or most of these vaccines have aborted fetal cells (DNA), heavy metals such as thimerosal or aluminum? Why are pharma companies who create these vaccines pretty much exempt from legal action if someone is harmed because of a vaccine?

It's only going to get worse. The way this "CV-19 vaccine" is being rushed through at operation warp speed is abysmal. Major steps are being skilled! It takes YEARS for a vaccine to go through production in a normal situation, but now all of a sudden, it's okay to rush it? They've NEVER created an effective vaccine for ANY version of Coronavirus (and CV in some form has been around since 2007), but they're going to be successful NOW?

And I also understand that some want this to be MANDATORY because they fear for their lives apparently. They should just stay home!

DVD presentation called "The Vaccine Forum" where all this and much more about vaccines is exposed. As a kid, I too had only 3 of the 5 or 6 vaccines available and have not had a vaccine since. The liability on vaccines is enormous. It has been said by Glaxo Smith Kline that the only vaccine that is 100% safe is one that is never given!! Vaccine makers required and received total exemption from prosecution of any kind because of the vast lawsuits they faced by vaccines gone wrong on individuals. The vaccine industry set up a fund where 25 cents of every vaccine sold is put aside for adverse reactions or deaths caused by their vaccines. People can apply for compensation IF THEY CAN PROVE WITHOUT A SHADOW OF DOUBT that the vaccine caused physical harm or death. You got a better chance of getting hit by lightning in the middle of the desert, than proving your case. G'day Sal, thanks for all the info in the post and your comments.

Arthur Firstenberg has also produced fairly compelling evidence, but linking the spread of the "flu" immune response symptoms (pneumonia is a Samson option type immune response AFAIK) to radio frequency electromagnetic radiation in the microwave range.

Radiation dangers.com/5G has supplemented Arthur's research with further evidence connecting flu symptoms to RF EMR. The symptoms for RF EMR have been connected to successive increases in volume and density of RF EMR.

It is with us 365 days a year. In the summer when we get plenty of D vit via the Sun, and exercise, the immune system copes with the damage. In the winter when the immune system is under greater load due to higher exposure to RF EMR, due to the longer time spent indoors, that also confers higher exposure to stale air, we suffer flu symptoms. I haven't had an injection since I was a teen over 50 years ago, but I get colds and flu.

Other research has identified spike inserts on exosomes (claimed to be "flu") claimed to be from the natural mutation of "viruses" (by inert microbes?) found in Chinese bats, that are capable of intercepting microwave radiation.

Two theories with good evidence supporting their validity.

The strongest evidence for Arthur's theory is that "flu" was around before electrification and vaccines (unless Rockefeller snake oil at the time contained vaccine ingredients) and researchers of the day linked it to peak solar magnetic activity. Wrt the widespread 1918 pandemic, it seems as if, like today with 5G roll-out areas coinciding with COVID hotspots, there was electrification densification due to the introduction of radio.

My thoughts, a unification theory is necessary.

What say you sir?

I posted a big chunk of your post in my journal, I hope that's ok with you.

Clothcap... Thanks for the information about Arthur Firstenberg. I had not read any of his work but after reviewing with you sent, his work dovetails nicely with what knowledge I have about the topic. I reviewed what you wrote and your analysis and comments are quite accurate. I believe you would enjoy reading a prior comprehensive blog I wrote "5G and the Corona Virus" <https://salmartingano.com/2020/06/lets-talk-5g-and-coronavirus/> Perhaps I can add to your knowledge base with the following information about viruses. People think viruses are always bad for the human body but the opposite is true. Microbes in general, are part of our ecosystem and all play a part in our survival if encountered appropriately. For instances, without viruses the body would not be able to cleanse dead or dying cellular debris. Viruses enter cells through the cytoplasm, where it can be filtered and categorized. When viruses enter the cells inappropriately, directly through defects in the cell walls, the body gets blindsided and illness soon follows. The point is that 5G has 20X more penetrating power than 4G and thousand(s) times more than analog or 1G. Wireless technologies at the 4 and 5G level cause "fissures" in cell walls because of the constant "vibrations". when a fissure (crack) develops the "opportunistic" virus which is measured in nanometers has clear access to the inside of the cell, essentially blindsiding the defense mechanisms, leading to illness. Just 2 months after 5G was turned on to the 10,000 towers located in Wuhan alone, Covid 19 showed up. So, Covid-19 may not be a sole cause of this pandemic....5G initiating factors may be the direct cause. Remember, there has yet to be a single complete virus isolated from any tissue sample, only fragments from viral RNA and DNA strands. I can go on but enuf said for now. Thanks for posting my material and read the blog I just sent you when you get the chance...all blogs are located on <http://www.salmartingano.com>

I've never heard this about the Spanish flu before. Makes sense though. I've long been suspicious about vaccinations especially when I was researching about the time my children were being born. None of them had any of the standard childhood vaccines and they are the biggest, strongest most intelligent kids in the world. I have long wondered about the polio vaccine. Dr. Salk is on a pedestal higher than Ghandi, Jesus Christ and Mohammed combined. The polio vaccine is touted as an absolute success story. Can you recommend any books that go into the kind of detail about polio and the polio vaccine you did here for the Spanish Flu?

SAL MARTINGANO

August 28, 2020 at 1:16 am

REPLY

Patrick...The Spanish Flu really had nothing to do with Spain or where the flu originated. Spain was the only country at the time that had a FREE press. Spain reported the onset of the "flu" and was dubbed the Spanish Flu. The rest of the story is pretty well documented in the blog. The polio story is quite complex. Polio has 2 forms....Aseptic Meningitis, which represented 90% of the polio cases but was not crippling and amounted to no more than an ordinary flu. Polio Myelitis represented 10% of the polio cases and was crippling. The 1910's - 1950's represented the most crippling polio cases but by 1954, Polio myelitis was at its lowest level, BEFORE the vaccine was introduced. Jonas Salk was a medical researcher and was encouraged by former president FDR (who had polio myelitis) to develop a vaccine. In 1954 Salk developed an injectable DEAD viral vaccine. Salk understood that using a live virus vaccine would be deadly but a dead polio virus vaccine may not induce immunity but at least wouldn't cause polio myelitis. He was right...however the truth is that the Salk vaccine did virtually NOTHING to stop polio because the dead vaccine could not produce immunity. Polio myelitis cases continued to rise but to hide the truth, they began to count all cases as Aseptic Meningitis. Albert Sabin produced a LIVE oral polio vaccine. Polio cases rose even higher because the live virus was carried from children to their caretakers. Salk understood the truth and on his deathbed in 1995 admitted that his vaccine was worthless. This is not to downgrade Salk's research but to point out what the public will never learn...75% of all cases of Polio actually came from the vaccinated group. Polio virus, like all other deadly viruses run their course, with or without vaccines.

I do a 90 minute presentation called the "Vaccine Forum" that covers the Polio story in its entirety but you can find tons of PRO polio vaccine documentation just by searching the web. I might consider doing a blog on the Polio Vaccine at some point.

Your message is good but would be even more informative if you went back to the first vaccine with British Dr. Edward Jenner . How he incubated and replicated cowpox in live pigs for his smallpox vaccine. Variolation had worked for centuries in other countries. If I remember correctly Jenner's own son died after he received the vaccine. The town of Leicester resisted the mandatory vaccine in 1869-1877 when smallpox deaths increased but it remained mandatory for the military. The vaccination agenda spread to the USA and they incubated and replicated their cowpox virus in cows with mastitis. That subsequently led to the 1918 pandemic.

Elaine.....Yes...early vaccine preparations were dangerous since no two people react the same to a LIVE viral preparation with no safeguards. I think the boy who died from the cowpox vaccine was not Jenners son but the son of someone close to his family. As far as the 1918 Spanish Flu is concerned, there have been many stories and speculations but the most reliable I've found came from the the writings of Elenor Beane, who documented that the meningitis vaccine along with a host of other experimental vaccines that were given to soldiers and the general public, to help protect the population from whatever diseases soldiers were bring home from WW1. Autopsies after the war proved that the 1918 flu was NOT a "FLU" at all. It was caused by random dosages of an experimental 'bacterial meningitis vaccine', which mimics flu-like symptoms. It was the MASSIVE multiple assaults on the human immune system that triggered the event. That's why ONLY THE VACCINATED fell victim. Those who were not vaccinated were not involved. Pretty scary story no matter what version is actually true.

Anthony Fauci supported and helped fund the research. When the NIH tried to shut down the dangerous project, Fauci had it sent to a Chinese lab.

REPLY

Tom...Neil Ferguson is an epidemiologist, meaning he studies diseases, patterns and possible solutions. If you dig into his methods of making decisions on how to handle potentially deadly diseases, he studies the similarities and creates mathematical, biological computer models using the data he collects. Sounds like a reasonable intellectual approach but computer models do not and cannot anticipate Natural occurrences that alter the actual outcomes DRAMATICALLY. A good example are the computer models created around the world, predicting hurricane trajectories. Sometimes you will see 20 different computer models, some totally contradicting other models, supposedly based on the same data. The weather channels accept the variable because natural occurrences can alter results. In the healthcare field, there are also variable epidemiology computer models BUT the one that raises to the top, is backed by a prominent NAME in the field. The more prominent the name the more the model is pushed. Not to belabor the point but AL GORE suddenly became the CLIMATE CHANGE GURU (with absolutely no credentials at all but the backing of a political agenda). His computer model predicted Florida would be half under water by now and life would be altered forever.....well..... like Ferguson, he was wrong, only with Ferguson comes HUGE consequences. He stated with FULL AUTHORITY that that Draconian measures like lockdowns, quarantines and everything BUT HERD IMMUNITY would be required to stop Covid. With media hype, this scared the SH_T out of Joe public and now we find ourselves guided by political agendas rather than actual science. The same has happened to Fauci....expert credentials but in my opinion wrong on the Covid issue. BTW: Ferguson's computer model for SWINE FLU predicted 500,000 deaths. The actual death toll was under 500. The same was true for his prior viral epidemics...yet we keep listening. Real science is a check and balance system based on "SCIENTIFIC METHOD" not computer models....ENUF SAID

It's amazing how bill gates (yes, lower case..no respect for demons) and fauci who know each other very well, are pressing vaccinations. No, it's not..they both have a big financial stake in it. gates doesn't need more money, yet here he is, not even a medical professional telling us we need to all be vaccinated. He will make billions and at the cost of human life, which he doesn't value since he openly speaks about depopulation. (he should start with himself and be the first) Here's a quick video... you can watch the whole thing on youtube but this certain segment really stood out for me. If you notice how he says that if you think this first wave is bad, wait until the second wave. As he says this he almost chuckles as he looks at his wife, who smiles like it's a beautiful thing. So they know for certainty that there will be a second wave. I believe it will be because of the covid19 vaccine. I believe people will start dying off rapidly. Maybe not at once, but perhaps in time for their agenda 2030. I've also researched that it's very possible that the ingredients will have an effect on reproduction. Males will be given one that kills the the cells in sperm that impregnate the female's egg, but not kill the sperm and will have something in it that once introduced to the female will make her infertile. Females will be given a vaccine that will make them infertile. Perfect way to depopulate. It's a horrific agenda. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7LkLsbfGeV4&feature=youtu.be> Let me know your thoughts.

Terry....Unfortunately, there is more to vaccination than you will ever know. I say that with due respect because after 20 years of research into the vaccine programs from the early and primitive stages of the Edward Jenner vaccine programs, right through the explosive Polio vaccine programs of the 1950, that with almost absolute certainty, gave birth the the AIDS and Ebloa epidemics and on to the present day "vaccines for everything" programs.....the human species is being manipulated. All this and much more is presented in my "Vaccine Forum" seminar that covers all you mentioned, including the spermicides now in 4 vaccines. Way too much for this format but stay alert and understand that Gates and others are hell bent on population reduction (OVER TIME). The NAZI's had their primiiitive vaccine experimentation programs using humans subjects as guinea pigs. Watch what the FDA and CDC is pushing through congress: (paraphrased) "For the benefit of mankind in general, you do not have the right to put your neighbor in danger by not being vaccinated" TRANSLATION: Say good bye to vaccine exemptions. Here is an example from a slide from my presentation. 1- What do Polysorbate 80, Octoxynol 10 and Triton X-100 have in common?They are SPERMICIDES that cause infertility and are in the DPT, Hep "B", Gardasil, Pneumonia and ALL FLU SHOTS

Sal, thank you so much for your research and factual approach, and for first encouraging each of us to do our own research.

I always trusted that all the "regular" vaccinations for my kids were overall safe and effective. We have been VERY fortunate that they are overall very healthy. However, even without research, I could never authorize the HPV vaccination for them. Something about it seemed not right, even though at the time, I had nothing to support what I felt in my gut as not ok. I'm still having to tell their dr no. I have never received a flu shot (and have no recollection of ever getting the flu in my life!), and rarely have either of my kids gotten it. I'm not militant against it, but in the pit of my stomach, it seems a wrong choice for me.

And the charts in your article demonstrating vaccines being introduced during the decline of each of those diseases, I never knew that. How do we know that the vaccines have or have not been key in KEEPING those diseases at bay? Is it provable, verifiable, or merely anecdotal and widely embraced as truth?

I want to be able to respond intelligently with verifiable facts, as you have strived to do. Your response to people's comments here has been just as informative as your article. Thank you so much.

Thank you for the kind words. I too am not approaching the topic of vaccines from an all or nothing stance. Frankly, vaccines are not and never were part of the 'fabric of life', until BIG PHARMA got the green light without to produce them without consequences. Once that occurred the BUSINESS of vaccines over-shadowed the MEDICAL NECESSITY for vaccines. BIG money, from the likes of Soros, Gates and the Rockefeller foundations started pouring in and literally 'bought and paid for' the research supporting vaccines.....NOT FROM INDEPENDENT sources but from the vaccine manufactures themselves.

The only stats I have is that the vaccine industry cleared almost 800 billion in 2012.....can't find stats on current figures. If you heard Gates during his TED talk, he flat out stated that his goal is to vaccinate every person on the planet.

Of course, Gate has no medical credentials except for his massive investments that will earn him $$$$$$$$$$.

Vaccine exemptions were put in place not to protect the people but to give vaccine makers a legal way out from adverse reaction law suits; however now that they have total immunity from prosecution, merely calling any illness a PUBLIC EMERGENCY overrides ALL EXEMPTIONS. Therefore, you have no options or recourse. Vaccines will be tied to things like renewing your driver's license, flying in a plane or even going to school.

Yes...ALL vaccines have been initiated after the epidemic is over, so that the people will see only see that cases are going down after the vaccine. NOONE asks for or can they find the truth about the effectiveness of the vaccine.

I can't possibly cover everything in a blog so I depend on comments, that allows me to elaborate to the benefit to you and to others.

Javier...Yes there is a lot we've been fed that isn't true.....it's part of what politics does to manipulate the unsuspecting public. That's why the Constitution was written in such explicit language....knowing that those in power will try to abuse it. It's up to the people to question what we are being told to flush out the truth and to hold those in power accountable at the ballot box. We have just witnessed however, how easy it is to corrupt the election process. Even our courts have agendas that attempt to nullify the legitimate evidence from the people. As was said many years ago by the Englishman, Lord Acton back in 1857...."Absolute Power Corrupts Absolutely" Stay strong !!
